18 SEATTLE DIVISION

19 DIRECTV, INC., a California corporation,

20 Plaintiff,

21 v.

22 MICHAEL McCORVY,

23 Defendant.

24 No. CV03-3735 FDB
25 DIRECTV Litigation

26 ORDER GRANTING JUDGMENT OF
DEFAULT AGAINST DEFENDANT
MICHAEL MCCORVY

17 Upon consideration of Plaintiff DIRECTV, Inc.'s Motion for Judgment of Default
18 against Defendant Michael McCorvy, any opposition thereto, and the pleadings filed in this matter, this Court finds that:

- 19
- 20 1. Defendant Michael McCorvy knowingly purchased, resold and distributed 21 satellite signal theft devices ("Pirate Access Devices") that are designed to 22 permit viewing of DIRECTV's television programming without 23 authorization by or payment to DIRECTV.
- 24 2. Defendant Michael McCorvy purchased seven (7) Pirate Access Devices 25 from DSSPro, located in Indiana and thereafter resold and distributed those devices.

- 1           3. Defendant Michael McCory placed his orders for Pirate Access Devices by 2           using interstate or foreign wire facilities, and received his orders via the
3           United States Postal Service or commercial mail carriers.
4           4. Plaintiff is entitled to judgment against Michael McCory in the amount of 5           $70,000.00 (7 purchases/resales x $10,000 per violation) as statutory 6           damages and $850.00 as reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

7           Based on the above findings it is, this 25th day of July, 2005 by the United States
8           District Court for the Western District of Washington,

10           ORDERED that a Default Judgment is entered against defendant Michael McCory
11           in the amount of $70,000.00 as statutory damages plus $850.00 as reasonable attorney's 12           fees and costs. Interest on the judgment at the federal rate shall accrue from the date of 13           entry of this order.
